Band Leader

“Aka President”

Welcome to Orange County Children’s Theater spring production of “The Music Man.” These talented kids and directors have worked hard and poured countless hours into rehearsing in order to bring this classic tale to life.

Orange County Children’s theater was founded in 1969 with the mission to provide opportunities and instruction in theater arts to children and families throughout Orange County, but our organization provides so much more. I have seen the results of children who find themselves in unhealthy environments where their bad choices lead them down paths of self destruction. OCCT is a safe, family friendly environment where all of our children can feel free to express themselves while developing important life skills such as leadership, confidence, and respect for others and oneself.

I would like to thank the administrative board for answering my call to serve this wonderful organization. I especially want to recognize the parent volunteers. OCCT could not continue without their hard work and dedication. They are truly the backbone of our organization and a shining example of what volunteerism can achieve.

Huntington Beach High School and Grace Lutheran School deserve special recognition from OCCT for the generous use of their facilities. Our show sponsors are always deserving of a special thank you! If your family is interested in OCCT, please speak with any board member or check out our website at www.occt.org for more information. We also welcome your generous donations to assist with these fabulous productions for your young thespians.

Enjoy the show!!

TELEGRAMMERS

Megan Walker Telegrammer Choreographer

Megan is absolutely ecstatic to be working with the telegrammers for her first time. She is an 18 year-old OCCT alum, participating in 7 shows over the course of 3 years. Her favorite OCCT credits include Cinderella in Rodgers & Hammerstein's Cinderella and Rizzo in the most recent production of Grease. She has also performed with Broadway on Tour, Musical Theatre Orange County, and Buena Park Youth Theatre. Megan graduated from Orange County School of the Arts (Class of '14) from the musical theatre conservatory, and is continuing her studies at Cal State University, Fullerton majoring in theatre arts with an emphasis in musical theatre. Some of her other favorite credits include MTOC's Hairspray as featured ensemble and BPYT's Seussical as Mayzie LaBird. Megan has also participated in master classes and workshops with Broadway stars such as Susan Egan, Laura Bell Bundy, Shoshana Bean, Eden Espinosa, and fellow OCCT alum Krysta Rodriguez. This is Megan's first endeavor into choreography and she is so glad to be presenting it through her home theatre. She hopes that all her tellies put on a great performance, and she wishes luck to the rest of the cast of Music Man!
